Research information

1. Project title: User experience in mobile computing: What matters to you?
2. Principal Investigator and co-investigator(s), if any, with the contact number and organization:
   - Susanne Barth MSc. - University of Twente - +31 53 489 2997
   - Prof. Pieter Hartel - TU Delft/University of Twente
   - Prof. Menno de Jong – University of Twente
3. What is the purpose of this research?
   You are invited to participate in a research study. This information sheet provides you with information about the research. The Principal Investigator (the research doctor or the person in charge of this research) or his/her representative will also describe this research to you and answer all of your questions. Read the information below and ask questions about anything you don’t understand before deciding whether or not to participate in the study.
4. Who can participate in the research? What is the expected duration of my participation? What is the duration of this research?
   Anyone who studies at the University of Twente or TU Delft. There are no risks involved in participation regarding your health. The research study will take place during the Cyber Crime Science Course, divided in three settings, lasting approximately 30 minutes each.
5. What is the approximate number of participants involved?
   Approximately 40-50 participants.
6. What will be done if I take part in this research?
   During this research you will be asked to fill in questionnaires about user experience regarding mobile applications. Furthermore, you will be asked to choose and download/install a mobile application. We will use this data to explore the factors that make up your user experience while interacting with mobile applications.
7. How will my privacy and the confidentiality of my research records be protected?
   Only the principal investigator has your identifiable information (e.g. names, IC nos.) and this information will not be released to any other person. Identifiable information will never be used in a publication or presentation.
8. What are the possible discomforts and risks for participants?
   There are none.
9. What are the possible benefits to me and to others?
   There is no direct benefit to you by participating in this research. The knowledge gained will benefit you and the public because it will shed more light on the possibilities to conduct social research in the future.
10. Can I refuse to participate in this research?
    Yes, you can. Your decision to participate in this research is voluntary and completely up to you. You can also withdraw from the research at any time without giving any reasons, by informing the principal investigator and all your data will be discarded.

11. Whom should I call if I have any questions or problems?
   Please contact the Principal Investigator, Susanne Barth MSc (s.barth@utwente.nl; +31 53 489 2997), or one the co-investigators.

For an independent opinion regarding the research and the rights of research participants, you may contact the Human Protection Administrator (Attn: Ms Jorien van Loon, at telephone 053 489 3748 or email at j.vanloon@utwente.nl ).
